Who is Jesus? – Prophet

Why does it matter? Why study it? Isn't it enough to know Jesus as your Lord & Saviour? Well, yes, that's all you need to depend upon for your salvation but is that all God desires of you....No

John 1:12 states we are "God's children", so... what does he want from his children?

- |  |           |
|--|-----------|
| 1. I _____ about his plans, as recorded in the bible | Rom 15:4  |
| 2. I _____ in His work as faithful workers           | Eph 2:10  |
| 3. I _____ of Christ & followers of His example      | Eph 5:1&2 |

If we study the Bible with the help & guidance of the Holy Spirit, what is going to happen?

5. _____

The Bible teaches that Messiah would be Fully God & also Fully Man, but it also teaches that Messiah had to be eligible & able to hold three offices Prophet - Priest – King. Why?

A Prophet has to represent God to the people – speak God's message to the people.

A Priest has to represent the people to God – make sacrifices on their behalf.

A King must rule God's people with Righteousness, Peace & Joy.

The first prophet mentioned in the bible is Abraham (Gen 20:7), but the person whose life & ministry is given as a minimum standard for the Messiah is Moses. This is found in Deut. 18:15-18.

What did God require of the Messiah?

3. _____

Although many prophets followed Moses and may have had some similarities to his life & ministry, in Ex 34:10 it records that "No prophet had arisen like Moses whom the Lord knew face to face".

It appears this postscript was added to the Torah much later, some think by Joshua or after the exile of Babylon & some even at the closing of the Old Testament, but it's really uncertain. Certainly, many apocryphal writings were still looking for the Messiah who would fulfil this passage.

What unique events or characteristics did both Jesus & Moses have in common?

There were also many other events or characteristics both Jesus & Moses had in common.

What was the difference between the miracles Moses did to those Jesus did to show He was sent & approved by God

Moses' miracles were characterised by J _____ & D _____

Jesus' miracles were characterised by A _____ L _____

When the rulers ask John the Baptist "Are you the Prophet" he answered "No" John 1:19-23

The people testified concerning Jesus

At the feeding of the 5,000 - John 6:14, the people said "This is truly the prophet who is to come"

At the feast of tabernacles – John 7:40, the people said "Truly this is the prophet"

When Jesus made his final & triumphal entry into Jerusalem – Matt 21:11, the people gave him a king's welcome & said "This is Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth of Galilee"

Peter testified to all the people at the temple concerning Jesus

Quoting Duet. 18:15-18, and then all the prophets he concluded that Jesus was The Prophet, God promised by stating "To you first God having raised up His Servant Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from your iniquities" Acts 3:22-26

Jesus himself emphasised the fact that "He only spoke God's words"

John 7:16 "My doctrine is not Mine, but His who sent Me"

John 8:26 "I speak to the world those things which I heard from Him"

John 8:28 "as My Father taught Me, I speak these things"

Similar statements are made in John 12:49-50; 14:10 & 17:8

Finally, God the Father at the Transfiguration testifies

Moses & Elijah, (the two greatest prophets of Judaism in the OT) were talking with Jesus

Out of the three prophets standing on top of the mountain – which one should they listen to??

"This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Hear Him"

Jesus the King

Presented by Timeline Ministries

Jesus, Yeshua is the “King of kings and Lord of lords”. He is the omnipotent king of heaven and earth with all power and authority, for there is no other name under heaven by which men can be saved.

When God created the earth, he intended for Adam and Eve to run this world in accordance to the divine revelation. See Genesis 1:28

When Adam and Eve rebelled against God, their failure meant the rulership of this world was handed over to Satan. 1 John 5:19 / 2 Cor 4:4/John 16:11/ Eph2:2

Despite this world coming under the authority of Satan, God’s plan was to have a man, the second Adam, a king who would rule over creation according to the divine mandate.

The Coming Kingdom King Jesus the Rock from Heaven, at His Second Coming crushing the empires of this world, to establish His glorious Kingdom. Daniel 2 / 7:2-3 / 17-18
