

Jesus said....

“Do not think that I will accuse you before the father ; the one who accuses you is Moses, in who you have set your hope. For if you believed Moses, you would believe Me, for he wrote about Me.

But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe My words?”

(John 5:45-47)

G-d said to Moses concerning the Messiah....

“I will raise up a prophet from their country men like you, and I will put My words in His mouth, and He shall speak to them all that I command Him. It shall come about that whoever will not listen to My words that He shall speak in My Name, I Myself will require it of him”. (Deuteronomy 18:18-19)

Jesus said... “ Truly, truly, I say to you, he who hears My words, and believes Him who sent Me, has eternal life, and does not come into Judgement, but has passed out of death into life (John 5:24)

“AM ISRAEL CHAI”

This is only one example of many, so please feel free to contact me to talk further, or to receive a free complete Bible (Tenach and New Covenant scriptures together).

“Behold, days are coming declares the L-rd when I will make a New Covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah”

Jeremiah 31:31

Those day's have come !!!

To talk further:

write to David

c/o PO Box 1144

Epping NSW 1710

Or email Richard

mail@awaketoisrael.org

Am Israel Chai

ISRAEL'S SECURITY
BARRIER IS SAVING JEWISH LIVES !!!

BUT SOME OTHER JEWISH BARRIERS ARE DOING MORE HARM THAN GOOD.

While the Security barrier in Israel should go up...

... some other Jewish barriers just need to come down.

Sadly there seems to be all sorts of barriers that have gone up in the minds of Jewish people as to why they can't accept Jesus (Yeshua) as the Messiah.

These misconceptions are largely due to the fact that Jesus is today all too often judged by the mould of modern twenty-first century Rabbinic Judaism rather than Biblical Judaism.

The question can never be: "Is Jesus the Messiah in accordance with the teachings of modern Judaism?" Judaism today is too fragmented with Messianic views that range from "He Will Come" to "What Messiah?"

The real questions we all must face are:

"What does Biblical Judaism teach about the Messiah?"

and

"Is Jesus the Messiah of Biblical Judaism?"

Whether you are religious or not the fact is that the Rabbinic Judaism taught and practiced today, which rejects Jesus as the Messiah, is far different from the Judaism of the Bible which points to Him as the Messiah.

The Messiahship of Jesus must stand or fall on no other criteria than His conformity to the teachings and practices of Biblical Judaism and the Messianic prophecies within the Tenach, not on the basis of His conformity, or lack of it, to the modern Rabbinic Judaism as taught and argued by the religious establishment of today.

G-d's unchanging word, the Bible, is the final authority on any Jewish matter, not what appears to be the majority vote or the arguments and reasoning of men.

Breaking down the barriers...

Rabbinic Judaism says.....

We are all born innocent and without sin. We have a good inclination (yetzer hatov) and a evil inclination (yetzer hara) in which we make our own moral choices to sin or not to sin, therefore we are in no need of redemption or a saviour because there isn't a sin problem.

Biblical Judaism says....

Nowhere in the Bible does it teach of a good inclination or an evil inclination or that we are born without sin. Genesis 3 : 1-24 tells us when Adam and Eve committed the first act of disobedience in Eden, sin entered the human sphere and separated them and all future generations from G-d. From that point on the means of bridging that separation of man from G-d was by the means of blood. This bridging of the gap is called "redemption".

As Biblical history develops in the book of Genesis, we find that all the ones with whom G-d was pleased came to Him by means of blood: Abel; Noah; Abraham; Isaac; Jacob — and by the time we get to Moses the redemptive element of blood ran through the entire Law (Leviticus 17:11). The Law was given to Israel to show G-d's righteous standard, and that through it we can't save ourselves. The blood from the animal sacrifices were only a temporary covering from sin until G-d's redeemer, the Messiah, would come and take them away. This is the reason Jesus had to die and shed His blood on our behalf — read Isaiah 53.